Attention Park District Patrons!

Please make an informed decision on Tuesday, November 7, 2006
on the Glen Ellyn Park District's Capital Projects Referendum.

Three Key Components

- ◆ Preserving the Past: Renovating Main Street Recreation Center (MSRC)
- ◆ Acquiring Open Space: Purchasing additional land for future use.
- ◆ Building the Future: Constructing a Multi-Purpose Facility at Ackerman Park.

Total Referendum Request: $11.9 million

- ◆ For every $100,000 in market value, the referendum would cost $23.31 per year to the property owner. This means if the proposed referendum does not pass, you will realize a savings as illustrated by the following table.

Fair Market Value	Tax Impact With Referendum	Savings Without Referendum
$200,000	$0	($46.62)
$300,000	$0	($69.93)
$400,000	$0	($93.24)
$500,000	$0	($116.55)
$600,000	$0	($139.86)

If approved,
there will be
NO ADDITIONAL COST to taxpayers.
