

Glen Ellyn Park District Board of Commissioners honor local businessman Dan Davies

Glen Ellyn, IL – The Glen Ellyn Park District Board of Commissioners passed a proclamation at its workshop meeting May 4 thanking resident Dan Davies, owner of Earth Werks, Inc., for donating $4,800 in materials and labor for a retaining wall and stairs for the new playground at Ackerman Park.

According to Superintendent of Parks Dave Scarmardo, Davies “has risen above and beyond staff” s expectations . . . the dedication to serving your community’ s needs are remarkable and invaluable.”

Before presenting Earth Werks employee Joseph Gillengarten, who attended the meeting on behalf of Davies, with a commemorative plaque, board president Ed Hess read the following proclamation:
